

The necks of both Taylor and Shelton broke at the first fall. They died seemingly without a struggle. The great fall caused the rope to cut through the flesh on their necks.

Murphy, when brought to the gallows the second time, told the Sheriff to go on with the murder, "for remember," said he, "you are not hanging murderers."

It was, throughout, one of the most painful spectacles ever witnessed.

Wm. F. Johnston.

Of all the public men of this State, we are aware of no one whose course has been characterized by a greater want of consistency and honest principle than this individual.

He once was a one term man. Now he begs office for a second term.

He once was a democrat. Now he is a federal whig of the most reckless character.

He once advocated a faithful execution of the National Constitution, by "a summary remedy," in reference to fugitives from labor. Now, he repudiates all that he then said.

He was largely instrumental in fastening an enormous debt upon the State. Now he would like to avoid the responsibility of that debt, by attempting to fasten it upon others.

He at one time professes to be for Bank reform and a sound currency; and at another he is the advocate of an issue of shipplasters.—West Chester Republican.

What a Whig Governor has Done.

Some of the whig papers are sure the people will vote for Gov. Johnston because, say they, "two months after his induction into office he paid the interest of the public debt promptly, without resorting to the Locofoco expedient of a loan." Smart man, that Governor, to do so much for the "dear people." But by the by, what in the meantime, if he paid the State indebtedness, became of the money abstracted from the people's pockets in the shape of taxes? We always thought that item was some in the count when the State Treasurer was making up his money bags to pay the annual interest on the State debt, but according to whig logic it was "no where." Smart man, we say again, is our worthy Governor.—Thus speaketh the Erie Observer.

"TRAVELLING CABINET."—The New York Herald estimates that Mr. Fillmore and his secretaries have travelled, this spring and summer, in round numbers, 20,000 miles, in little trips of a few days, here and there. "In this estimate we include the necessary return travel to Washington of several absentees of the cabinet, and an estimate of the trip to the Virginia White Sulphur Springs, proposed to be undertaken next Tuesday. The tariff of '46 keeps the wheels of government well greased—no creaking—nothing to do. After December next, the President and Cabinet will probably be detained at Washington until March, 1853, when it is likely they will all set out on their travels together."

A Bloomer.

The New York correspondent of the Phila. Inquirer, under date of August 10, says:

Yesterday, a lady, accompanied by a gentleman, made her appearance at the Custom House, dressed in the Bloomer costume. The clerks were highly excited. After examining the building below, she ascended to the roof to view the city. She was the only person in the Custom House who appeared to be cool, collected and unconcerned. Her dress was not exactly the same as that described in the print in the windows of the music stores. The trousers were open at the bottom, and instead of the Grecian jacket, she wore a black silk "visite," trimmed with a deep fringe of lace of the same color. Her head was covered with a broad leaved straw hat, tastefully trimmed with long flowing blue silk ribbons. The appearance of the whole was graceful and neat.

The Execution at Ellicott's Mills.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 8, P. M.—Amos Green, the young colored man, who was convicted on a charge of committing a crime of an aggravated character on a young married German woman, was hung in the presence of a large concourse of persons at Ellicott's Mills, at 12 o'clock today. He protested to the last his innocence of the charge, and met his death quite resigned. A despatch was received from Gov. Lowe authorizing a further reprieve, if thought advisable, by the District Attorney.

SECOND DESPATCH.

Amos Green repeated his protestations of innocence to the last. He prayed to God to forgive the woman who had sworn his life away, with his last breath.

Cholera Morbus.

READ THE FOLLOWING EXTRAORDINARY CURE. I hereby certify that about two weeks ago I was seized with a violent attack of Vomiting and Purging, (Cholera Morbus,) with very distressing pains in the stomach and bowels, which was completely removed by two tea-spoonful doses of the Petroleum, taken in a little water. After having taken the first dose, I slept soundly and comfortably for three hours.

Signed HENRY WISE, JR., On board Steamboat Ariadne. ATTEST NIMROD GRABILL, Pittsburg, December 12, 1849.

Symptoms of Disease Should never be disregarded. They are unerring indications that the vital functions of nature have been interrupted in their healthful action, and that serious evils must inevitably follow, unless the system be again set right by the timely use of proper remedies.

Bear in mind, that nature is ever endeavoring to expel disease when it invades the animal economy, and will only need the assistance of some genial restorative—thorough, yet mild, in its action—that will give tone to the system, and act UPON THE BLOOD—which is the principle of life.

GUYSOTT'S YELLOW DOCK AND SARSAPARILLA. As a purifier of the blood, a renovator of the system, and a supporter and preserver of the powers of life, it has no equal. Take it, on the first indication that disease is upon you, and you will avert perhaps weeks and months of sickness and suffering. See advertisement.

DIED:

On Thursday evening, August 7th, at his residence in Cambria Township, of Cholera Morbus, Mr. EVAN H. ROBERTS, aged 40 years.

The deceased died in the short space of twenty-four hours, surrounded by his relatives and friends. He was, while living, universally esteemed, and his memory will long be revered. He has left a wife and six children to mourn his sudden loss, with whom the community deeply sympathize.

At his residence in Cambria Township, of Dysentery on Monday evening, Aug. 11, Rev. TERRENCE MCGIRR, in the 70th year of his age.

The deceased was a priest of the Catholic Church for a period of 40 years, nearly all of which time was passed within the limits of what is now Cambria County. He received a splendid education at that seat of learning, Maynooth College, Ireland, was a superior linguist and remarkably talented man. He was of invaluable assistance to the late Rev. Dr. Gallatin in his efforts to improve the condition of his flock, render them more happy, and by soliciting emigration to make the wilderness blossom as the rose. By all who knew him he was respected and beloved; and although his spirit has winged its flight to realms beyond the skies, the remembrance of his virtues will continue to enhance the resplendent beauty of his life while on earth. His mortal remains were yesterday interred in the burial ground of the Catholic Church of this place, with all the imposing and impressive ceremonies of that Church of which he was a zealous disciple, and were followed to their final resting place by an unusual large crowd of persons of all religious denominations. Requiescat in pace.

DR. GUYSON'S IMPROVED EXTRACT OF YELLOW DOCK AND SARSAPARILLA, put up in the largest sized bottles, contains more of the pure Honduras Sarsaparilla than any other preparation extant, which is chemically combined with the Extract of Yellow Dock, the Extract of Wild Cherry, and the Balsam of Fir, thus making the remedy more thoroughly efficient than any other Sarsaparilla before the public. At the same time it is perfectly free from all mineral poisons, which cannot be said of any other of the Sarsaparilla compounds. The invalid should beware of poisons! Mercury, Iron, Quinine, Potash, Iodine, Sulphur, Arsenic, and many other mineral and metallic poisons enter into and form the active basis of most of the Sarsaparillas and Panaceas of the day. Guyson's Compound Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla does not contain a particle of these substances; as any one can ascertain by applying the necessary tests.

These poisons may occasionally remove diseases, but they so vitiate the blood and completely impregnate the whole system with their baneful effects, that the first cold, or the first attack of disease, prostrates the patient's strength, and subjects him or her to the most excruciating torture, and renders another cure almost impossible and hopeless. Let all poisonous Sarsaparilla preparations alone, and use Guyson's Improved Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla which is thoroughly efficacious, perfectly harmless and purely vegetable. All kinds of diseases yield to its genial influences.

Price $1, per bottle or six bottles for $5. To persons purchasing by the dozen, a liberal reduction will be made.
